The Impact of Your Sponsorship

Your generous sponsorship supports VRLC's vital work and spotlights your community commitment to an audience of thousands.

You'll be funding our:

Legal representation of over 400 survivors every year, 17% of whom are 18 and under

Training and mentoring of over 4,000 professionals annually from 51 states and territories

Advocacy for improved national and state policies and laws that protect the rights of sexual assault survivors

Your commitment will be recognized through:

Our biennial conference which brings together 250 professionals from around the country to learn and share strategies to fight for the rights of sexual assault survivors. These includes attorneys, corporate culture managers, academic researchers, advocates, and health care professionals.

Our annual Shining Star Celebration which honors pro bono attorneys and firms that have played a key role in fighting for survivors' rights. This Boston event attracts 250 supporters including regional philanthropists, law firm attorneys as well as corporate inhouse counsel, and executives in the finance and a range of industries. Approximately 1/4 of our audience are mid-career professionals.

Our virtual educational events which each draw 400-800 audience members including private practice attorneys, K-12 and college administrators, nonprofit advocates, judges, district attorneys, and health care professionals.

Our monthly newsletter which reaches 3,000 attorneys, advocates and donors from around the country with updates on the legal landscape and news from VRLC.

Our quarterly pro bono newsletter which reaches 300 current and former private practice attorneys from around the country who receive training from VRLC and donate their time and expertise.

About Us

VRCL is a survivor-centered nonprofit law center that helps rape and sexual assault survivors rebuild their lives. Our attorneys provide free, comprehensive legal services in the critical areas of education, employment, housing, privacy, safety, immigration, and financial stability to help survivors rebuild their lives. VRCL attorneys are nationally recognized experts in the legal remedies available to address the legal issues many sexual assault survivors face. Through our training programs, we promote a national movement committed to seeking justice for every rape and sexual assault victim.
